

NYU Langone Health Statement on the Conduct of Participants in Research Studies

NYU Langone Health is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for both participants and researchers in all of our studies and interactions.

All participants will be treated with respect and consideration, and in turn, we ask that you please treat fellow participants and research staff with respect.

Unacceptable Behavior includes, but is not limited to:

- Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination of any form, including sexual harassment and discrimination based on someone's race, religion, color, national origin, language, age, gender, gender identity or expression, ability status, or sexual orientation
- Sexual attention, advances, or inappropriate sexual language
- Treating the research environment with disrespect
- Threatening or hostile comments or conduct
- Sharing private information about other participants
- Inappropriate touching, physical aggression, or verbal and/or physical violence

The study team may remove you from the study immediately without compensation if you engage in unacceptable behavior.

We thank you for helping us to maintain a safe and welcoming environment for both participants and researchers.
